THE CULTURE BOX

Color emerges as the first indication of current cultural expectations. This emotional response to world events sets the pace for the year, driving the way we surround ourselves with the visual mood of challenges to meet, and concepts to realize, in the days ahead.

The year 2021 holds a promise of freedom and health as we open our doors to the coming end of a worldwide pandemic.

Bold, luxurious color will reflect the promise of a healthy economy and a return to confidence as we move into the future within a new, more global and digital society. This year's delicious jewel tones speak to the opulence of a joyous abundance, with deep, saturated color based on some of nature's loveliest gifts; semiprecious stones and shimmering minerals.
