RIFLE PAPER CO.

The debut collection from Rifle Paper Co. is timeless, inviting, and filled with their signature florals, expressive illustrations, and custom-colored sisals—each designed to bring unexpected beauty into the real world.

Rifle Paper Co. is a stationery and lifestyle brand based in Winter Park, Florida, founded by husband-wife team Nathan and Anna Bond in 2009. Taking cues from Anna's vibrant gouache illustrations, their world is full of bold colors, hand-painted florals, and whimsical characters, and their goal is to create quality products that bring beauty to the everyday.

Anna (a former freelance illustrator) and Nathan (a former musician) built the brand learning as they went and on the idea that Rifle Paper Co. products should be well-designed, high-quality, and accessible. They currently reside less than 10 minutes from the brand's Winter Park, Florida studio with their three young sons.

Anna Bond, Co-Founder & CCO

The Creative Process

Anna Bond is co-founder and chief creative officer at Rifle Paper Co. and her hand-painted illustrations and distinctive color palette are the heart of the Winter Park, Florida based brand. All of Anna's designs begin with gouache paintings that are then manipulated and re-imagined to become vibrant patterns filled with figures and florals that feel both modern and timeless.

The pattern featured here, Camont, was inspired by both an antique pattern from York's archives and one of Anna's trips to an 18th-century farmhouse of the same name in Gascony, France. She painted elements from Camont's world: a perfectly rustic French chateau, fig trees, lemon trees, chickens and flowers, and set them in an antique layout.

Manufacturing and Craftsmanship

The Peacock pattern is one of the most complex patterns of the Rifle Paper Co. collection. The fine detailing and vibrancy of this eight-color print is achieved through rotary screen printing's ability to depict both intricacy of design and complexity of color registry.

Peacock

Magnificent peacocks perch on winding branches, surrounded by bright blooming flowers and emerald leaves. Inspired by traditional chinoiserie motifs, our modern take is both classic and playful.

Garden Party

Garden Party is one of the most popular prints in the Rifle Paper Co. world. Customers have loved this print on art prints, cards, party goods, fabrics, and now wallpaper. The pattern was illustrated originally in the bright bright, multicolored colorway, but the neutral options are a new take on the print, and make a sophisticated statement.

Pattern Play

Mixing a bold floral with a more neutral, companion pattern is a great way to use wallpaper in multiple rooms of your home. We like to layer patterns together that have the same color palette to keep things looking cohesive and intentional. Champagne Dots, Laurel and our Palette collection of custom-colored grasscloths all pair beautifully with our statement-making florals.

Fable

Fable is designed to mimic woodblock printing, a centuries-old technique where a relief pattern is carved into wood, coated with ink and hand-stamped onto textiles or paper. Woodland creatures are hidden throughout the dense forest in this print, bringing to mind favorite characters from classic stories and tales.
